J. L. Whittier's
Letter, on Caleb Cushing

Ms. A.9.2, p. 100

Office, 21 Cornhill
Boston

Monday July 6th 1857

Mr. Ward

Enclosed is the letter referred to by thee, the Editorial Comments explain it.

I notice that some have said that the "General" wrote the letter in his shirt. This is hardly correct He wrote it under a "deep concern," ~~in~~ haste, in the morning twilight — to save his election. He was badly sore, but I think unnecessary so. There was not quite so many enough in the District to defeat his election. The long letter to which he refers, was published in the Salem papers of the time, & may be easily found.

The Resolutions of the Legislature may be looked for in the Liberator of the years 1837 - 8. —

Very truly &c

John G. Sullivan

I do not wish my name unnecessarily connected with the "Non-Resistant", especially I am unwilling to have the "night-gown" story told on my authority. It may answer for a figure of speech but it is not literally true.
